

GRADUATED LAST YEAR, DONE YOUR TRAVELLING AND NOW NEED TO EARN SOME DOSH?

Graduate opportunity at Jigsaw24

Working on your own initiative with the support of the Jigsaw24 team you will formulate the go to market strategy of a specific market sector or product set. Liaising with the world's leading creative technology partners and with the wider Jigsaw24 team, you will achieve awesome results with energy, enthusiasm and, above all, fun. Having understood how we work, who our customers are and what we sell, you will work with the Jigsaw24 team to devise a plan that will help attract new customers and identify gaps in sales to existing customers.

Jigsaw24 are the most awesome company in the universe and Nottingham (even if we do say so ourselves), providing amazing technology solutions to the creative industries and education, with Apple and Adobe at the very core of our DNA. Our solutions range from providing on-location equipment for Hollywood blockbusters (such as James Bond), TV studios for schools/businesses, Apple technology to pretty much all of the publishing industry, and apps for iPad and iPhone. We are a team of 140-plus like-minded individuals based in Nottingham, London and MediaCityUK, who believe in outstanding customer service, get excited by awesome technology and having a great time. Life's for living.

JIGSAW24 INSANELY GREAT! www.Jigsaw24.com

Application process

If this floats your boat then please send us an email to awesome@Jigsaw24.com answering the following questions:

- 1 What do you know about Jigsaw24 and the creative industry?
- 2 Why are the things that Jigsaw24 do important to our customers?
- 3 What is your favourite aspect of Jigsaw24 and why?

We do not want anything other than the answers to the above questions and certainly not a CV/resume!

Please also add to the email your Twitter name, LinkedIn profile, Facebook profile and any other online presence that you feel gives a good picture of who you are.
